WOOF GANG BAKERY & GROOMING

Holiday Season Team Memo

Sales Associates | Port Washington • Hicksville • Glen Cove

To: All Sales Associates From: Kyle & Betty Re: Holiday Priorities

Hey team,

The holidays bring more customers, more dogs, and more opportunities to make someone's day. Our goal is simple: keep dogs safe, deliver exceptional service, and make every visit count. Please focus on these priorities throughout the season.

1 | SAFETY FIRST — EVERY TIME

Higher volume means we must be more alert, never less.

- Keep doors to the grooming area closed and every dog on a lead when moving through the store.
- Never leave a dog unattended on a grooming table or in a tub; never leave a collar or leash on a kenneled dog.
- Keep walkways clear and floors dry. Report injuries, incidents, escape risks, or concerning behavior to management immediately.

Safety always comes before speed, sales, or schedule pressure.

2 | RETAIL — BE A RESOURCE, NOT JUST A REGISTER

Know our seasonal treats, toys, apparel, and grooming products. Approach browsing customers, ask about their dog, and make a genuine recommendation. Keep displays stocked, faced, priced, and tidy. Never make up a product claim.

3 | APPAREL — ATTACH THE CUSTOMER ACCOUNT

Every apparel sale must be linked to a customer account in FranPOS before checkout. Look up the customer first; create a profile if needed. Ask your manager if you need help. No exceptions.

4 | GIFT CARDS — BE READY

Be able to sell and activate gift cards, check balances, redeem them, and handle split payments in FranPOS. Practice with your manager before the rush—not while a customer is waiting.

5 | CUSTOMER SERVICE — OWN THE EXPERIENCE

Greet every guest promptly, use the dog's name, review appointment notes, and communicate professionally. Return missed calls and voicemails the same day. Listen to concerns and involve management; do not promise refunds, discounts, free services, or veterinary reimbursements without approval.

6 | GROOMING AVAILABILITY — FIND A SOLUTION

When a requested time is full, offer another date or groomer, check another Woof Gang location when appropriate, and add the customer to the waitlist. Work quickly to fill cancellations; escalate unusual scheduling requests rather than turning customers away.

7 | LATE ARRIVALS — THE 5 / 15 RULE

At 5 minutes late: call and text the customer to check their arrival status. At 15 minutes or more: consult the groomer and manager to determine whether the appointment can safely proceed, be shortened, or be rescheduled. Management makes the final decision. Never promise an exception or rush a dog to make up time.

8 | CHECK-IN & PRICING — NO SURPRISES

Confirm the service, customer instructions, rabies status, and required waivers. Collect accurate breed, size, and coat details when booking. Grooming prices are based on weight and coat type: the groomer must weigh and assess the dog and ensure both classifications are correct in FranPOS. If a correction changes the price, notify management so the customer can be informed before grooming begins. Disclose add-on charges in advance.

9 | CHECKOUT — OFFER REBOOKING EVERY TIME

Verify the completed services and add-ons, confirm the customer is satisfied, and offer the next grooming appointment before they leave. Use the groomer's recommended interval; offer a mini groom or bath between full grooms when appropriate. Every customer should be offered rebooking—even if they decline.

10 | PRESENTATION & TEAMWORK — FINISH STRONG

Keep the counter, cookie table, shelves, and seasonal displays clean and stocked. Remove expired or damaged products. Help with laundry and shared tasks as needed. Before closing, complete the checklist, follow up on missed calls, and review tomorrow's appointments.

PAYMENTS, CANCELLATIONS & EXCEPTIONS

Follow the store's current approved policies for credit-card surcharges, deposits, cancellations, and no-shows. Confirm the payment method and explain applicable fees before completing payment. Never invent a fee, waive a charge, or promise an exception without management approval.

The little things matter: a warm greeting, a thoughtful recommendation, a filled cancellation, and a rebooked appointment. Thank you for helping make this a great holiday season for our customers, their dogs, and each other.
